With a staff of judges enjoying hundreds of performances throughout the Sacramento Region, SARTA is constantly striving to promote live theatre of all kinds and the VTC is always honored to receive nominations, and better yet, wins!, as the competition is always quite fierce! This year, VTC was thrilled to receive sixteen total nominations, as well as a multitude of Certificates of Achievement which are awarded to the top 10% in any given category! Congratulations to all!!

The Volcano Theatre would like to acknowledge the efforts of two individuals who, although not named on an award, definitely contributed to the success of each nominated production. Michaela Rose Key, a cast member in The Trial of Ebenezer Scrooge was also an integral part of the creation of costumes as well as providing hair style and make up expertise. On James and the Giant Peach, it was Director Marty Brifman's original vision for the set design that began the construction process. The contributions of Michaela and Marty, as well as all the other volunteers who make VTC shows possible, are invaluable to the success and longevity of this community theatre company.

As the Volcano Theatre Company is run entirely by volunteers and is a 503c non-profit, your tax deductible contributions are always welcome. If you'd like to help, please visit us on line at www.volcanotheatre.net and follow us on Facebook for all the latest VTC tidbits!

BALANCING THE BOOKS CAN BE A CHALLENGE!

And never more so than during these Covid times when the theatre is dark for the entire year with no source of income. Theatre maintenance, taxes, utilities and insurance continue to come due, whether or not we have an audience or a show!

Any amount of financial support will be greatly appreciated, and of course, is tax-deductible. Thank you for supporting YOUR Community Theatre!
